Language Strip

Purpose: Demonstrate an ability to speak in another language.

Requirements:

1. Show you know a language other than your own by conversing on a subject of your choice for 5 minutes.
2. The person to whom you are talking or reporting to must agree that your pronunciation and grammar are basically correct and age appropriate.

You wear the Language Strip on the flap of the left breast pocket of the Cub shirt (see page 35). There are Language Strips available for many languages, including sign language and braille. Ask one of your leaders about them.

Religion in Life Emblem

If the requirements for the Religion in Life Emblem have been set by your religious organization, ask your spiritual advisor or leader to help you earn this award.

The Spirituality Award

The Spirituality Award is designed for the youth member who is presently excluded from earning a Religion-in-Life Award by not belonging to a specific faith community.

To help you earn this award, obtain the pamphlet outlining the requirements from the Scouts Canada website.
